Background

Summary

As a member of the Trial Division, I am responsible for investigating, indicting, and trying felonies. In Manhattan, we vertically prosecute; I take on cases from arrest and handle them through collateral appeal. As lead prosecutor, I have tried nine cases before juries in New York County and conducted dozens of hearings. I have presented at least fifty cases before the grand jury, including cold-hit DNA cases.

Currently, I am supervising two junior attorneys in a project targeted to reduce crime in Midtown Manhattan. In the past, I served as a junior member of a project targeting a specific gang responsible for violence in Harlem. These projects highlight the investigative skills necessary for a big-city prosecutor.

Interview Details

OFFICER MICHAEL RELF

Officer Relf is a 27-year-old White male, who stands 5'11", weighs 220 pounds, and has brown hair and blue eyes. Officer Relf was assigned to sector A/B, worked with Officer Winters, dressed in uniform, assigned to handle RMP #3271, and worked from 3:00pm until 11:35pm.

On September 24, 2011, at approximately 9:50pm, Officer Relf and Officer Winters received a radio run for a dispute at 37th Street and 8th Avenue in Manhattan. As the officers approached, Officer Relf noticed that Ms. Price was waiting for them in the street. Ms. Price was visibly upset, and when the officers exited their RMP, she told them that the owner of the bar had thrown her out because she would not have sex with him. Ms. Price wanted the owner to be arrested. Ms. Price did not seem to be intoxicated, and did not complain of injuries or seem to have any injuries. Officer Relf went into the bar to speak with the owner, while Officer Winters spoke with Ms. Price outside. Officer Relf stated that another sector backed him up, but he could not recall which sector that was (however, when Officer Relf was shown a video of the incident, he identified the other responding officers as Officer Melindones and Officer Stronier).

While inside of the bar, Officer Relf spoke with the owner and two patrons. The owner stated that Ms. Price comes to his bar frequently, and usually acts disorderly. He added that she usually harasses all of the single men at the bar, so when he noticed her inside, he asked her to leave. The two patrons that Officer Relf spoke with corroborated the owner's account. Officer Relf was inside of the bar for less than 5 minutes, at which point he exited and explained what he had learned while inside of the bar. Officer Winters proceeded to explain to Ms. Price that based on the disputed testimony, no arrests could be made regarding the incident, at which point Ms. Price became irate and belligerent. Ms. Price repeatedly used the word "fuck" and told the officers that she would file a complaint against them for their lack of action. Officer Relf could not recall Ms. Price making any movements with her body. Officer Relf explained that Officer Winters was the officer primarily interacting with Ms. Price at this time, trying to explain to her that there was nothing the officers could do and that she should simply leave the scene.

Ms. Price and Officer Winters were speaking on the North side of 37th Street, and as they spoke, a crowd of people gathered. Ms. Price and Officer Winters were taking place. Officer Relf added that he did not believe the interaction between Ms. Price and the officers was blocking pedestrian traffic.

Ms. Price continued to curse at the officers, but then began to walk away. Officer Relf stated that Officer Winters was not done speaking with Ms. Price at this time, and as she walked away, she turned around to the officers and stated "Go fuck yourself." At that point, Officer Winters caught up to Ms. Price and placed her under arrest. Ms. Price struggled slightly, but did not fall to the ground.

Officer Relf confirmed that he and Officer Winters transported Ms. Price to the station house, but Officer Relf stated that he did not interact with her there. At no point did Officer Relf hear any officer instruct Ms. Price to decline medical treatment and at no point did any officer motion with his finger towards Ms. Price indicating that she was crazy.

At the end of the interview, video footage was presented to Officer Relf. After watching the video, he stated that he had nothing to add or change about his previous testimony. He indicated who the other officers were at the scene, indicated that it was Officer Winters who was leaned up against the phone booth in the video, and he indicated that the crowd that had gathered was out of the picture.

OFFICER DIANE MELIDONES

OFFICER MELIDONES is a 52-year-old White female, who stands 5'6" tall, weighs 130 pounds, and has brown hair and blue eyes.
 OFFICER MELIDONES was assigned to Sector D, worked with OFFICER STROMER, assigned to RMP#3091, dressed in uniform, and worked from 3:00pm until 11:35pm.

Interview Details

On September 24, 2011, at approximately 9:50pm, OFFICER MELIDONES and OFFICER STROMER received a radio call for an assault in progress at Stitch Bar, but OFFICER MELIDONES could not recall the exact location. When they arrived at the scene, OFFICER MELIDONES saw Mrs. Price speaking with OFFICER WINTERS outside of the bar. OFFICER MELIDONES approached, and immediately deemed Mrs. Price to be intoxicated. She stated that Mrs. Price was screaming, cursing, not making sense when she spoke, and was "crying on."

OFFICER WINTERS went into the bar to gather more information, and OFFICER MELIDONES and OFFICER STROMER remained outside with Mrs. Price. OFFICER MELIDONES could not recall exactly what Mrs. Price's complaint was, but it had something to do with the fact that the bar did not want her inside any longer and she stated that she was thrown out. Mrs. Price also repeatedly mentioned an ex-boyfriend, but OFFICER MELIDONES did not understand what Mrs. Price was talking about. OFFICER MELIDONES believed that Mrs. Price wanted to allow her back inside of the bar, but the staff of the bar repeatedly said that Mrs. Price was not welcome. Mrs. Price calmed down while she was speaking with OFFICER MELIDONES, but when the officers explained that there was nothing they could do for Mrs. Price in this situation, she started screaming again.

After speaking with Mrs. Price for approximately 5 minutes, OFFICER MELIDONES went to speak with either a bouncer or a bartender who was standing near the entrance to the bar, in order to get both sides of the story. OFFICER MELIDONES could not recall exactly what the individual said, but remembered that he indicated that Mrs. Price was inside of the bar and was speaking to Mr. Price. OFFICER MELIDONES was speaking to this individual. OFFICER WINTERS came outside of the bar and was speaking to Mr. Price. OFFICER MELIDONES was using profanity and continued to be acting disorderly because she was angry. OFFICER WINTERS was trying to speak with Mrs. Price, but Mrs. Price stated something along the lines of "You can't make me do what I don't wanna do. I'm going to sue you because I should be allowed back in that bar." Mrs. Price was being very demonstrative as she spoke. Mrs. Price started walking away from the bar and continued cursing and screaming as she walked. OFFICER WINTERS went after Mrs. Price. OFFICER MELIDONES explained that she is a very bad judge of distance, but believed that Mrs. Price was about 25 feet away from the bar, and OFFICER WINTERS was about 10 feet away from Mrs. Price. A crowd of approximately 5 people was gathering, dispersed further up the street from Mrs. Price and across the street.

OFFICER MELIDONES figured that OFFICER WINTERS was following Mrs. Price in order to place her under arrest, so she followed him, and OFFICER WINTERS did arrest Mrs. Price. OFFICER MELIDONES was never told directly, but believes that OFFICER WINTERS placed Mrs. Price under arrest because she was clearly intoxicated, was becoming disorderly, and they did not know what she would do next. and believed that she may have gone back into the bar to cause further trouble.

OFFICER MELIDONES did not transport Mrs. Price back to the station house, however she did interact with her in the station house. OFFICER MELIDONES went into the holding cells and suggested to Mrs. Price that she go to the hospital since she was so intoxicated. Mrs. Price repeatedly refused. OFFICER MELIDONES did not see Mrs. Price receive or deny medical treatment. OFFICER MELIDONES also did not see any officer motion with his hand implying that Mrs. Price was crazy.

OFFICER MELIDONES was shown surveillance video footage from Stitch Bar. She identified herself and the other officers. She could not recall what Mrs. Price was doing when she placed her hands over her head. OFFICER MELIDONES stated that there was no gathering beneath the shot and to the right of the shot--across the street. When Mrs. Price walked off of the screen, the Price, in essence stated "I'm going to do what I want to do."

On September 24, 2011, at approximately 9:50pm, PO Winters and PO Relf responded to a reported dispute at a bar located at 27 West 37th Street in Manhattan. PO Winters had never responded to a call at Stitch Bar in the past. PO Relf was dispatched to assist, but PO Winters and PO Relf arrived at the scene first. When PO Winters got out of his vehicle, he was met by Mrs. Price in the middle of the street. Mrs. Price was agitated and visibly upset from the moment PO Winters saw her. Mrs. Price was yelling that she was thrown out of the bar and beaten up. Mrs. Price stated "I wouldn't fuck anybody in that bar and that's why they asked me to leave." Mrs. Price did not seem intoxicated. PO Winters did notice that Mrs. Price had bruises all over her arms and legs. Mrs. Price was not wearing much clothing and the bruises were easily visible. Mrs. Price never stated that the bruises were a result of any interaction within the bar. PO Winters entered Stitch Bar in order to hear the bar manager's account of the incident. PO Winters interviewed the bar manager, identified through investigation as Nicholas Cohen, who stated that he knows Mrs. Price and that she has caused him trouble in the past, so he asked her to leave. She refused and the bouncer and her had a small shoving match, resulting in the bouncer shoving her out of the bar. Mr. Cohen stated that no one hit Mrs. Price, and there was no assault. PO Winters also interviewed multiple independent witnesses who were inside of the bar. The witnesses all said that Mrs. Price had been acting irrational, and confirmed that no assault took place. PO Winters explained that he deals with a lot of consumer related disputes and in order to make an arrest, he needs to listen to both parties' accounts, see fresh visible injuries, or obtain corroborating testimony from independent witnesses. Due to the lack of any of the aforementioned factors, PO Winters determined that no arrestable offense had taken place.

PO Winters exited the bar and told Mrs. Price that she was not allowed back in the bar, and if she did return, she could be arrested for trespassing. Mrs. Price immediately became irate. She was yelling that the only reason she was asked to leave the bar was because she wouldn't sleep with anyone inside. Mrs. Price then started yelling at the officers, stating that they didn't know how to do their jobs. PO Winters tried to explain that there is not much they could do for her since it was just a simple stay the fuck out of the bar. Mrs. Price was still upset with the bar manager, she could take it up with the bar manager, but she was screaming. Price continued to tell the officers that they didn't know how to do their jobs. Mrs. Price was speaking loudly and was becoming more animated as she spoke, waving her hands around. During his interview, PO Winters repeatedly stated that Mrs. Price was standing closer than he would have liked her to and got in the officers' faces. As Mrs. Price continued to yell at the officers, a crowd of approximately 20 people started to gather. The crowd was gathering across the street and behind PO Winters. In addition, Mrs. Price and the officers were blocking pedestrian traffic on the sidewalk. As the crowd gathered, PO Winters asked Mrs. Price to leave the scene. Mrs. Price did not want to walk away, and continued yelling. PO Winters stated that Mrs. Price had ample opportunity to leave the scene and that he asked her to walk away more than once, but Mrs. Price never responded that she intended to leave the scene. After approximately 2-3 minutes of speaking to the officers outside of the bar, Mrs. Price stated "go fuck yourself" to PO Winters. That prompted PO Winters to place Mrs. Price under arrest for disorderly conduct. When asked if Mrs. Price was intoxicated, PO Winters stated "she wasn't slurring her words, go fuck yourself was pretty clear to me."

PO Winters stated that he put the cuffs on Mrs. Price, "but it wasn't like [the other officers] were standing with their hands in their pockets." PO Winters noted that Mrs. Price moved her arms slightly when she was being placed under arrest, but was not reaching. At no point did Mrs. Price go to the ground when she was being placed under arrest. She was taken to the marked RMP3271 transported to the 14th Precinct station house by PO Winters.

When they got to the station house parking lot, Mrs. Price did not want to walk into the station house. She was changing her feet and PO Winters had to help her walk. Half way to the station house entrance, Mrs. Price made her legs dead weight, fell to the ground, and refused to get up. PO Winters had to carry her the rest of the way into the station house.

Once in the holding cell, Mrs. Price repeatedly stated that she "wanted" the hospital. PO Winters stated that he hears this request frequently, and knew that Mrs. Price sought medical attention. PO Winters called for EMS at approximately 3:45am and at approximately 3:45am, they arrived at the station house. PO Winters stated that Mrs. Price must have changed her mind regarding medical treatment, because when EMTs arrived in her cell, she repeatedly refused treatment. PO Winters asked Mrs. Price if she wanted to go to the hospital, and she repeatedly declined. PO Winters never told Mrs. Price to decline medical treatment, and never encouraged her to decline medical treatment. PO Winters never told Ms. Price should would not be able to get medical treatment. The shield number of the EMT who attempted to provide medical treatment for Ms. Price was 00178. At the 10:58 minute mark of the CCRB interview, surveillance video from outside of Stitch Bar was shown to PO Winters. The following notes were provided by PO Winters as he watched:

At the 21:45:00 mark, a marked RMP arrives at the top right corner of the screen. PO Winters indicated that he saw PO Kelly and the occupants of the RMP. As the officers walk onto the sidewalk, PO Winters identified the officers from left to right as PO Kelly, PO McElldones, and PO Stromer. At the 21:45:45 mark, PO Winters enters the bar, followed by PO Kelly. PO Winters explained that while inside, he spoke with the bar manager and other witnesses to obtain information about the dispute. PO Winters confirmed that the female civilian on screen was Ms. Price. At the 21:47:09 mark, PO Winters is the first officer to exit the bar, again followed by PO Kelly. PO Winters identified himself as the officer who was leaning on the pay phone. When asked about Ms. Price's raised hands, PO Winters could not recall exactly what she was doing. He believes she was speaking with her hands and not making much sense when she spoke. As PO Winters watched the video, he repeatedly stated that he gave Ms. Price ample opportunity to leave the scene, and that she was standing too close to him. PO Winters pointed out that a few civilians had to walk through and around the officers and Ms. Price. People were coming out of the bar, and were across the street as well. Ms. Price's comments were loud enough that people across the street could hear what she was saying. She cursed multiple times, walked off the screen, and then stated "go fuck yourself" which prompted PO Winters to place Ms. Price under arrest.
